

There are countless reasons for creating or contributing to a fund at the Jewish Community Foundation. Though unique to each donor, they are all rooted in Tikkun Olam – repairing the world.

Donor choice is paramount at the Foundation, allowing donors to connect with, support and amplify the organizations and causes for which they are most passionate. The creativity, passion and generosity of our donors continues to inspire us and our community every day. Through unrestricted, designated or donor advised funds, donors achieve their philanthropic goals and true impact is realized.

We are honored to steward our donors and our partners. We work together to ensure our donor's philanthropic goals are fulfilled.

The funds listed on the following pages represent those that received gifts of at least $5,000, or have grown to that value as of June 30, 2018.

For a listing of fund and fund balances, please visit www.jcfhartford.org/AboutUs/PublicationsandFactSheets. You may also contact the Jewish Community Foundation to request a mailed copy.

NEW FUNDS

At the core of each and every donor is a heartfelt feeling of generosity and compassion. While each is unique in the stories and reasons behind creating new funds at the Foundation, we all share the vision and hope for a better world for generations to come.

The following is a listing of the new funds created this past year. The Foundation is honored to steward these funds. We are grateful for the opportunity to share in this work, together, with our donors and partners.

Donor Advised Funds Create Impact

A Survivor Gives Back to Kids Like Him

When Nick Wallace received a life-saving liver transplant at age 12, he didn't go to Disneyworld – he started a nonprofit to support other hospitalized children.

Nick's Picks, the nonprofit he created in Del Mar, CA, was a recent recipient of a Donor Advised Fund grant. The organization provides customized backpacks for children facing long-term hospitalization, filled with fun and comforting items to help fight the feelings of loneliness and disconnect that Nick experienced during his own hospital stays.

Nick's Picks is just one shining example of the many causes that the Foundation's donors support through donor advised funds, locally and around the world.

Jay Fishman Memorial Scholarship

"It was amazing to be part of the presentation and witness my niece receive this scholarship award...It is truly incredible that she received the Jay Fishman Memorial Scholarship since I have been an employee at Travelers and through the years have truly admired Jay for his leadership."

— Deborah Silverman, Senior Consultant, Talent Acquisition at Travelers

The Foundation brought Play It Forward to Camp Ramah in New England. More than 80 teens participating in NERUSY: New England Region USY, explored their personal values, shared ideas, asked questions and learned about the power of endowment giving.

Designated Funds Create Impact

The Ripple Effects of Supporting Nurses

A designated fund at the Foundation is dedicated to local nursing education and professional development – at not just one, but three major hospitals. This strategic commitment has lasting ripple effects for hundreds of patients and their families every year because better nurses mean better care for patients.

Each institution receives yearly funds to support this work, building a reliable pipeline of funding to support nurses and their ongoing professional development.

This grant provides a terrific example of smart designated grants that make an impact not just for the individuals who directly benefit, but also for the patients they serve, their colleagues, and their institutions.

Good Deeds Day
 Students from UConn Hillel participated in Good Deeds Day on April 15th by making sandwiches for people in need. The students were in good company – over three million people in 100 countries participated in the day believing in the tenet that good deeds, no matter the size, make for positive change in our world.

CUSTODIAL FUNDS

$15,563,000

Through custodial funds the Jewish Community Foundation is able to share expert endowment management and philanthropic support with synagogues and partners. We are honored by the confidence placed in us and look forward to continue growing our partnerships with these organizations and synagogues.
